Dear Authors

Sub: Call for papers for publication in Journal of Public Procurement and Logistics

Greetings from Indian Railway Institute of Logistics and Materials Management!

2. IRILMM invites researchers and practitioners to submit papers for the Journal of Public Procurement and Logistics, published periodically by IRILMM. The Journal strives to bring together scholars, practitioners and experts from different disciplines to share ideas on diverse issues in public procurement, logistics and supply chain management. It provides an opportunity for dissemination of contemporary research and best practices in a wide range of procurement, supply chain, logistics and public procurement policy issues, both academic and practice oriented. We welcome papers from multiple disciplines and different domains in the intended area. The focus of the Journal will be on, but not necessarily restricted to:

- Service contracts and incentive structure
- Bid & Contract design innovations
- Public Procurement through GeM
- GFR, Make in India & MSME reservations and issues arising from the policy
- Dispute resolution in practice after amendments in arbitration law
- Use of technology and block chain in public contracting & supply chain management
- Intelligent Warehousing and application of Artificial Intelligence
- Ethical issues in public procurement,
- Responsiveness of supply chain and issues in forecasting and planning
- Competition issues in public procurement
- Sustainable public procurement initiatives
- Innovations in waste management

3. The Timelines are as follows:

| Last Date for Submission of Full Papers | 30th April, 2019 |
| Notification of Acceptance of Full Papers | 15th May, 2019 |

4. All papers will be refereed and only the selected papers will be published. Submission of the papers shall be through email only. For details please see IRILMM website. Authors of the selected papers will be suitably recognized besides publication in the Journal. You are requested to circulate this call for papers widely among your colleagues, scholars and students. We look forward to your continued support.

5. Papers may be mailed: sudhir.sharma.k@gmail.com and director@irilmm.com

(Sudhir Kumar Sharma)
For Editorial Board