CALL FOR PAPERS

Journal of Public Procurement and Logistics

Greetings from Indian Railway Institute of Logistics and Materials Management!

IRILMM invites researchers and practitioners to submit papers for the Journal of Public Procurement and Logistics, published periodically by IRILMM. The Journal strives to bring together scholars, practitioners and experts from different disciplines to share ideas on diverse issues. It provides an opportunity for dissemination of contemporary research and best practices in a wide range of procurement, supply chain, logistics and public procurement policy issues, both academic and practice oriented. We welcome papers from multiple disciplines and different domains in the intended area. The focus of the Journal will be on, but not necessarily restricted to:

- Procurement of Goods, Works, Consulting and Non-Consulting Service – Procurement Design, Strategy, Innovations, Challenges, KPI's, Risk analysis and Mitigation
- Public Procurement Policy – Issues and challenges, GFR
- Contracts and Incentive Structure, PPP Contracts and Risk Allocation
- Funded Procurement – Agencies, Constraints & Challenges
- Public Procurement through GeM, CPPP & other portals
- Make in India & MSME reservations - issues & challenges
- Digital Integration issues in supply chain
- Emerging technologies and Supply Chain – Digitalization, Block chain, IoT, AI/ML, Data Analytics
- Supply Chain Responsiveness, Managing Disruptions, Planning & Forecasting issues.
- Disputes resolution –Mediation, Arbitrations and Legal issues
- Competition issues in public procurement
- Ethical issues in public procurement
- Sustainable public procurement - Environment & Social issues
- Warehousing & Logistics – Technology and Innovations
